Material Title: At Home in this World ... A China Adoption Story* (see comment about Children's Materials on Index page)

Author: Jean MacLeod Children's Books 2003 15 pages

This book is a reflection of a pre-adolescent girl on what she knows of her adoption from China, and the strength she gains from her acceptance and experience. It addresses the underlying feelings and emotions that a China adoptee experiences and enables pre-teen readers to put their early lives into perspective, while emphasizing the supportive love that encircles them within their own families.

Material Title: Coffee Can Kid, The* (see comment about Children's Materials on Index page)

Author: Jan M. Czech Children's Books 2002 24 pages

This is a story about a story. Six-year old Annie asks her adoptive father to tell her again about her Korean birthmother and how she came to be adopted. While Annie listens to her father, the coffee can becomes, in her hands, alternately a drum, a shaker and a chest containing a dear treasure.

Material Title: Cross-Cultural Adoption: How to Answer Questions from Family, Friends, and Community

Author: Amy and Caryn Coughlin and Abramowitz Books 2004 148 pages

This book, geared toward families who have adopted internationally, might offer insights to families who have adopted US kids. The first chapter "The Questions Kids Ask," presents 18 typical questions with ideas for answering them on both a little kid level and on a more mature level. The second chapter, "Do's and Don'ts for Grown-Ups," offers just that. The final chapter gives factual information about 8 countries.
