Material Title: Beyond Consequences, Logic, and Control: A Love Based Approach to Helping Children with Severe Behaviors (Volume 2)
Author: Heather T. Forbes, LCSW Books 2008 160 pages

Heather T. Forbes, LCSW, offers families a new view to parenting children with difficult and severe behaviors. As a parent herself who experienced challenging days (and years) following the adoption of her two children, she offers a ground-breaking approach to parenting that shows parents a proven way to develop strong and loving relationships with their children. She bridges the gap between academic research and real life when the rubber hits the road parenting. This book is written in an easy to understand and easy to grasp format for anyone working with or parenting children with difficult or severe behaviors. The first six chapters discuss the principles of her love-based parenting paradigm. A new understanding of why traditional parenting techniques are ineffective with children with difficult behaviors is given, along with clear and concise explanations of the science behind trauma and negative early life experiences. The next seven chapters address specific behaviors, including poor social skills, homework battles, demanding behaviors, self-injury, defensive attitudes, no conscience, and chores. Each chapter gives specific examples of how to implement her parenting principles, empowering parents to make amazing and permanent changes in their homes. All the examples given throughout these chapters are true stories provided by parents who read and implemented her first book, Volume 1. The book ends with a parenting bonus section where more real-life stories from real-life parents with real-life children are given. These examples range in the spectrum of the ages of the children and a variety of behavioral issues. This book offers hope and healing.

Material Title: Broken Spirits Lost Souls: Loving Children with Attachment and Bonding Difficulties
Author: Jane Ryan Books 2002 388 pages

Author: Holly Van Gulden & Charlotte Vick Books 2010 110 pages

This book, from the author of Real Parents Real Children, is a handbook style guide to raising adopted children, offering chapters devoted to specific developmental stages – though your child is nine, if she behaves more like a four-year-old, then that might be the developmental stage she is in. It is full of charts, lists, anecdotes, and guidelines that make it an easy tool for parents to use and refer back to.

Material Title: Life Story Therapy with Traumatized Children
Author: Richard Rose Books 2012 175 pages

Life story therapy is an approach designed to enable children to explore, question and understand the past events of their lives. It aims to secure their future through strengthening attachment with their carers and providing the opportunity to develop a healthy sense of self and feeling of wellbeing. This comprehensive overview lays out the theory underlying life story therapy, including an accessible explanation of contemporary research in neurobiology and trauma.

Material Title: Living with an Angry Child (2 Audiotapes)
Author: Holly van Gulden Audiotapes 2002 +2 hours

Adopted children struggling with unresolved loss or poor attachment often exhibit acute episodes of rage and chronic or intermittent patterns of passive-aggressive non compliance. These behaviors can and do trigger angry responses – sometimes even rage – in parents and siblings. This double workshop with Holly van Gulden analyzes anger and rage, and offers techniques for avoiding continual battles, managing healthy anger resolution, de-escalating rage episodes, and establishing a healthy, joyful family environment.

Material Title: Moving Forward: Making Sense of Our Complex Children (DVD)
Author: Dr. Ronald Federici and Heather T. Forbes, LCSW DVDs 2012

When children reach the later teenage years, many times they are not emotionally or developmentally ready for the challenges of independence. In this DVD, Dr. Federici discusses legal and financial options families have in order to stage their children through a slower and more gradual approach into adulthood. This volume sheds light on how to create the balance children with trauma histories need, without overwhelming them, to move them forward successfully.

Material Title: Multiple Transitions: A Young Child's Point of View on Foster Care and Adoption (VHS)
Author: Michael Trout Videotapes 1997 16 minutes

Young children who have experienced an important loss often express that loss through their behavior, rather than with words. This tape is an attempt to translate the behavior of foster children into words an adult might understand. Visually, it is simply a series of words on the screen. There is music in the background and occasionally a child will voice the words that are displayed. That's it, but the words are powerful and the picture they paint is both sad and enlightening. Anyone who works with such children might benefit from this interpretation of the expression of their loss.

Material Title: Nurturing Adoptions: Creating Resilience after Neglect and Trauma
Author: Deborah Gray Books 2012 457 pages

This state of the art guide for parents and professionals helping children affected by neglect and trauma demonstrates not only the effects on brain and emotional development of neglect and trauma and how to recognize them, but also approaches at home and at school that encourage these children to flourish. Although its focus is weighted toward the professional, this book is an excellent companion piece to Gray's other book, Attaching in Adoption, and it should be a source of enlightenment for parents as well.

Material Title: Parenting Children and Youth with Attachment Issues (2 CDs)
Author: Regina Kupecky and Gregory Keck CDs 2008

Material Title: TBRI for Teens (DVD)
Author: TCU Institute of Child Development DVDs 2015 hours 14 minutes

Developing a trusting relationship with any teenager can be a challenge. For teenagers with traumatic backgrounds of abuse, neglect or broken homes, it's especially challenging for both the teens and the adults who care for them. TBRI for teens follows a dozen youth, ages 11-18, and a dozen staffers from the Methodist Children's Home in Wasco, Texas as they try a new approach called Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI). Watch as the team reveals the remarkable changes that result from the TBRI approach.

Material Title: TBRI: An Overview (DVD)
Author: TCU Institute of Child Development DVDs 2014 37 minutes

This short video explains the principles and concepts behind Trust-Based Relational Intervention®, a proven method for enriching the lives of at-risk, vulnerable children, adolescents, and their families. Trauma can impair language, sensory processing, and coping skills, and can lead to perplexing behaviors that are often mistaken for aggression or mental illness. This video features world-renowned experts who share research that documents how consistently positive experiences with loving caregivers can re-wire a child's brain for lasting change.

Material Title: Teenagers: Making Sense of Our Complex Children (DVD)
Author: Dr. Ronald Federici and Heather T. Forbes, LCSW DVDs 2012

Trauma does not just "go away" and when many children reach their teenage years, a resurgence of their early traumatic experiences unfolds. Dr. Federici gives insight in this DVD discussion of how many teenagers reprocess the anger and aggression that was left dormant, resulting in an intensity of acting out behaviors (drug use, defiance, dramatic reactivity and sexual promiscuity). This DVD will give you a deeper understanding of how to help teens during these difficult years.

A true story of a 6 year old girl's journey from abuse, neglect, and shame to a path of Truth guided by the Great Spirit. The gentleness of her Grandfather's lessons taught along the paths through the meadow and by the flowing stream gave her strength to continue through the emotional pain she would inevitably walk back into. Author Erma Brundidge is a foster and adoptive family trainer who spends time speaking to groups about the effects of trauma on children and their future lives and relationships. She was a family therapist for 27 years before retiring and dedicating her life to giving a new understanding to foster and adoptive parents on how their words and actions impact the children they care for.

Material Title: Trust-Based Parenting: Creating Lasting Changes in Your Child's Behavior (2 DVDs)
Author: TCU Institute of Child Development DVDs 2011 hours 35 minutes

This DVD set offers in-depth training for parents of children with trauma-based behavioral issues. The Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) is an intervention model created by developmental psychologists Dr. Karyn Purvis and Dr. David Cross, founders of the Institute of Child Development at Texas Christian University. It is based on more than a decade of research and hands-on work with vulnerable children and their families. Dr. Purvis coined the phrase "children from hard places" to describe children who have experienced abuse, neglect, abandonment and/or trauma in early development. Their survival behaviors can be confusing, frustrating, and difficult to manage even for the most patient and loving parents.

This video features Drs. Purvis & Cross coaching families through real-life, problem-solving scenarios. They demonstrate proven, practical skills and strategies for applying TBRI Empowering, Connecting and Correcting Principles to everyday life to build a stronger parent-child connection, which leads to better behavior. Parents from around the world praise TBRI for giving them hope in times of crisis and lifelong solutions that can benefit the entire family.
