They will also learn how to motivate rapid change through a simple, powerful concept called "preferred view," the centerpiece of Lund's and Dr. Joseph Eron's Narrative Solutions Approach.

Material Title: Calming the Tempest: Helping the Explosive Child (DVD)
Author: DVD DVDs 2004 35 minutes

Material covered in this DVD is based upon the first edition of the book "The Explosive Child" by Ross Greene, Ph.D. DVD features Ross Greene, Ph.D. and J. Stuart Ablon, Ph.D., Co-Directors of the Center for Collaborative Problem Solving. Many adults have faced a child's or teenager's explosiveness, unsure of how to respond. Do I punish him for the outburst? Should I try to be understanding of how she is feeling and ignore the ugly behavior? In reality, many children who have difficulty managing their anger need to be taught the skills necessary for coping with frustration and situations that demand flexibility. It is the lack of cognitive skills that contributes to the angry outburst. Calming the Tempest provides parents, teachers, and caretakers with an awareness and overview of how to teach these skills at home and at school.

Material Title: Challenging Behaviors in Young Children: Techniques and Solutions (DVD)
Author: DVD DVDs 2006 50 min

This program (DVD) gives educators and parents the opportunity to observe firsthand the techniques used by teachers, in a state of the art preschool and research facility, effectively managing children with challenging behaviors. The esteemed authors of the book, "Challenging Behaviors in Early Childhood Settings; Creating a Place for All Children" offer their expert advice, which is then implemented in the classroom. This program includes: 1.)Live classroom footage of teachers effectively defusing actual crisis situations such as: tantrums, fighting, noncompliance, separation anxiety and other inappropriate behaviors in young children. 2.)How to model problem solving strategies and language. 3.)How to be an active listener to create an environment that fosters learning while giving students the skills to solve problems on their own.

Material Title: Lost at School: Why Our Kids with Behavioral Challenges Are Falling Through the Cracks and How We Can Help Them
Author: Ross W. Greene Books 2008 286

Dr. Greene describes how his road-tested, evidence-based approach -- called Collaborative Problem Solving -- can help challenging kids at school.

Includes:

- tools to identify the triggers and lagging skills underlying challenging behavior.
- explicit guidance on how to radically improve interactions with challenging kids -- along with many examples showing how it's done.
- dialogues, Q & A's, and the story, which runs through the book, of one child and his teachers, parents, and school.
- practical guidance for successful planning and collaboration among teachers, parents, administrations, and kids.

Backed by years of experience and research, and written with a powerful sense of hope and achievable change, Lost at School gives teachers and parents the realistic strategies and information to impact the classroom experience of every challenging kid.

Material Title: Managing Difficult Behaviors for Traumatized Children (Audiotape)
Author: Renee Daniel Hershey Audiotapes August 20, 1999 5 hours

In this 5-hour training, taped live on August 20, 1999, the underlying causes of difficult behaviors are explored as are practical ideas for helping children change. The goal is to help parents determine what children "can't do" vs. what they "won't do." Topics include sexualized behaviors, cruelty, preoccupation with violence, toileting problems and the "divide and conquer" antics of traumatized children. We also address self-destructive behaviors, eating problems and self-defeating behaviors often seen when children are struggling with a history of abuse and neglect.

Material Title: More 1-2-3 Magic: Encouraging Good Behavior, Independence and Self-Esteem (VHS)

Material Title: Trust-Based Parenting: Creating Lasting Changes in Your Child's Behavior (2 DVDs)
Author: TCU Institute of Child Development DVDs 2011 hours 35 minutes

This DVD set offers in-depth training for parents of children with trauma-based behavioral issues. The Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) is an intervention model created by developmental psychologists Dr. Karyn Purvis and Dr. David Cross, founders of the Institute of Child Development at Texas Christian University. It is based on more than a decade of research and hands-on work with vulnerable children and their families. Dr. Purvis coined the phrase "children from hard places" to describe children who have experienced abuse, neglect, abandonment and/or trauma in early development. Their survival behaviors can be confusing, frustrating, and difficult to manage even for the most patient and loving parents.

This video features Drs. Purvis & Cross coaching families through real-life, problem-solving scenarios. They demonstrate proven, practical skills and strategies for applying TBRI Empowering, Connecting and Correcting Principles to everyday life to build a stronger parent-child connection, which leads to better behavior. Parents from around the world praise TBRI for giving them hope in times of crisis and lifelong solutions that can benefit the entire family.

Material Title: Trying Differently Rather Than Harder
Author: Diane Malbin Books 1999 70 pages

This booklet is divided into five sections entitled, "What is Fetal Alcohol Syndrome?"; "Reframing Perceptions from 'Won't' to 'Can't'"; "Application" (which helps parents consider how to proceed in light of their "reframed perceptions"); "Examples of Behavioral Characteristics and Effective Adaptations"; and "Comments, Questions and Resources," respectively.

Material Title: Unconditional Parenting: Moving from Rewards and Punishments to Love and Reason
Author: Alfie Kohn Books 2006 272 pages

Kohn questions why parenting literature focuses on compliance and quick fixes, and points out that docility and short-term obedience are not what most parents desire of their children in the long run. He insists that "controlling parents" are actually conveying to their kids that they love them conditionally—that is, only when they achieve or behave. Kohn suggests parents help kids solve problems; provide them with choices; and use reason, humor and, as a last resort, a restorative time away (not a punitive time-out).

Material Title: Understanding and Helping Adopted and Foster Children with Emotional Problems (VHS)
Author: Michael Katz Videotapes 1990 4 hours

Many adopted and foster children have behavior problems that do not respond to traditional parenting. This video explains how underlying emotional problems involving attachment, identity, values, developmental delays, and anger produced by painful experiences sometimes not consciously remembered, can be the major causes. A variety of methods for reducing these behaviors are demonstrated.
