

Federal Adoption Tax Credit for Special Needs Adoptions

Some good news for families who adopted children from the foster care system is that there is some tax relief called the Federal Adoption Tax Credit for Special Needs Adoption. This is a one-time paid credit for the year the adoption was finalized, for each adopted child with special needs. The amount of the 2010 adoption tax credit is $13,170 per child. In 2010, the adoption tax credit became refundable and families who finalized their adoption in 2010—or will finalize an adoption in 2011—are able to use the full credit regardless of their tax liability. And, families who adopted special needs children from 2005 to 2009 can carry the adoption tax credit forward into 2010, so they too can benefit from this refund (amount of the adoption tax credit is based on the year the adoption finalized). We encourage families to consult with their tax preparer or contact the North American Council on Adoptable Children (NACAC) with further questions. Visit www.nacac.org, email taxcredit@nacac.org, or call 1-800-470-6665. NOTE: NACAC is not a tax professional organization and information provided by NACAC should not be considered to be legal or tax advice.

Additionally, NACAC has partnered with H&R Block to help adoptive parents determine whether they are eligible to receive additional benefits. Visit www.nacac.org for more information about this partnership.

Please visit our website at www.orparc.org and download the complete document entitled Federal Adoption Tax Credit for Special Needs Adoption. ORPARC's 12th Anniversary How we've grown!

On April 1, 1999, ORPARC opened its doors serving 3,058 state adoptive families. This month we celebrate our 12th anniversary, now offering post-adoption services to 9,130 state adoptive and assisted guardianship families parenting 11,896 children! Our growth has been steady over the years, not only in the number of families served, but also in the number of trainings delivered and the expansion of more than 1,100 material titles in our lending library. We have broadened our statewide collaborative partnerships, as well as our own knowledge, in connecting families with vital community resources. The staff at ORPARC is proud of the post-adoption services we have provided these past 12 years and we hope to be with you many more years to come. As always, we welcome your suggestions, comments, insight and participation. We look forward to our continued relationship in bringing you the highest quality service possible!

ORPARC provides free post adoption services to state adoptive and assisted guardianship families:

- ◆ Crisis support and intervention
- ◆ Statewide parent trainings
- ◆ Connection to services statewide
- ◆ Lending library on special needs topics
- ◆ Specialized parenting consultation regarding special needs children
- ◆ Assistance to start and maintain adoptive parent support groups

Exciting new brain research indicates that positive relationships can rewire and repair the damage from trauma, abuse, and alcohol/drug-related neurological disorders. Compare normal childhood development and its tasks with development clouded by abuse, neglect, and trauma. Learn about intervention strategies such as affect regulation, Circle of Security, sensory integration, early identification of neurodevelopmental profile risk, parent education on expected behavioral/developmental patterns, the role of psychopharmacological interventions, and, most importantly, the healing power of relationships. Identify specialized skills to promote positive neurological progress.

Caring for the Sexually Abused Child

Wednesday, May 4, 2011 ♦ 6:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Presented by Sandra McIlhenny

Children who have experienced trauma of sexual abuse will require additional understanding and supervision. Helping them to heal while keeping them safe is a challenge for foster, adoptive and relative caregivers. This class will help you understand the effect of abuse on children at all developmental ages and will provide some ways to encourage healing and provide safe structure for all in the home.

Parenting a Child with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

Saturday, May 21, 2011 ♦ 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

Presented by Jean Vanlue, MA, LPC, LMFT

Autism spectrum disorders are estimated to affect as many as 1 in 150 children. This training is designed to help you develop a basic understanding of the ways that Asperger's Syndrome and PDD-NOS impact how a child thinks and behaves, and to direct you toward resources that will help you meet the challenges of parenting a child with neurological differences.

Child Behavior Online Study (Ages 5 to 18)

Are you an adoptive or foster parent of a child between the ages of 5 and 18? If so, you are needed to help us to learn more about the effects of drug and alcohol use during pregnancy. This anonymous online research takes approximately 20 minutes to complete and involves answering questions about your child's history and behavior. Parents with children that were and also were not exposed to cigarettes, marijuana, alcohol, opiates, methamphetamine, or other drugs during early development are needed. Learning & Memory Study: <http://tinyurl.com/yjrfhva>. For more details, please contact Brian Piper, Ph.D., piperb@ohsu.edu, Department of Behavioral Neuroscience, Oregon Health and Science University or visit the study web page.

Neurobehavioral Study (Ages 9 to 11)

Are you an adoptive or foster parent of a child between the ages of 9 and 11? If so, parents with children that were and also were not exposed to cigarettes, marijuana, alcohol, opiates, or other drugs during pregnancy are needed. This research takes 2-3 hours and involves coming to OHSU to complete computerized learning and memory tests for the child and one interview with parent/legal guardian. Meeting in a study room at the public library in Salem or Eugene could be arranged too. The child will receive a $50 gift-card from Toys-R-Us. For more details, please contact Brian Piper, Ph.D., piperb@ohsu.edu, Dept. of Behavioral Neuroscience, Oregon Health and Science University. Families that have participated in the study for ages 9-11 (just published, email piperb@ohsu.edu for details) are also welcome too.

Fostering a Future Scholarship Program

Capital One, Children's Action Network and the Dave Thomas Foundation for Adoption have created a national scholarship program—Fostering a Future. The fund provides the opportunity to pursue higher education to graduating high school seniors who were adopted from foster care at 13 or older. The fund was created in hopes of encouraging prospective parents to adopt older youth and alleviate concerns about the possible financial obligations involved. Applications are currently being accepted and must be postmarked no later than April 20, 2011. For more information or to download the application, visit the following website: www.childrensactionnetwork.org.
